BOARD PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

JAKE JOBE

As communities continue to find their new normal after a pandemic, I am honored to reflect on 2022 and what the Clarinda Chamber of Commerce organization has accomplished. This past year, the Chamber was determined and focused on the Clarinda community achieving successful events and activities. The highly popular Clarinda Craft Carnival showcased over 450 booths plus more area bands than ever participated in the Southwest Iowa Band Jamboree. The Chamber also hosted several other events, like the annual Cruzin' Clarinda, that were equally as positive for our small town in Southwest Iowa.

As the 2022 Chamber President, I want to both personally and professionally thank everyone who came together to work for the advancement of Clarinda. Our staff, every single volunteer, and board are all devoted to making Clarinda the best town to live in. The time, dedication, and spirit shown by all who love Clarinda are noticed, seen, and appreciated.

We showed some love to the exterior façade of the Chamber office this year including a fresh coat of paint, new fabric material for our awning, and an automatic door mechanism installed. These are just a few projects we tackled, but our local square businesses put time and effort into their buildings as well. Our downtown square is welcoming and inviting and with the help of volunteers with green thumbs we keep our planters looking festive and attractive. Taking pride in Clarinda shows by every person who takes the time to pick up trash outside businesses and owners investing in their buildings. It is wonderful watching everyone pitch in.

Another update our square will see is the addition of two residential apartments. Construction started on the second story of the Chamber office in 2022 after a grant was awarded and additional funds secured. These two, much needed, 1,300 square-foot apartments have been a vision of the Chamber since we purchased our building 20 years ago in January 2003. Seeing our goal come to life and encompass both working and living in Clarinda was a privilege to be a part of. Our upstairs renovation has drawn many to Clarinda to view our progress, including Lt. Governor Adam Gregg.

As an instrumental part of almost every facet of community projects, the Chamber plays a dynamic role in the triumph of each event and activity. The Chamber's Shop Local Campaign encouraged everyone to shop in Clarinda for all their holiday needs. It takes a strong community to support all local businesses. We, at the Chamber, strive to set an example that each resident can be proud to follow. Please join me in continuing this practice in 2023. Together we can choose to always support Clarinda!
